AMERICA FOR AMERICA'S AMERICANS

MCKINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD.

In 1850 William McKinley was born in England in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1851 William L. Wilson was born and died in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts.

THE SILVER PROBLEM.

Commercial Gazette.
Farmer Anderson has two thousand bushels of wheat.

Mr. Jones has a thousand dollars worth of silver bullion.

Mr. Anderson's wheat is worth in the market $1,000.

So is Mr. Jones's silver bullion.

Mr. Jones goes to Philadelphia, takes his silver to the Mint and has it coined into two thousand nice, fine, pretty silver dollars.

When Farmer Anderson brings along his thousand dollars worth of wheat, Mr. Jones buys it, paying him $1,000—and he has $1,000 left with which to buy the wheat of the next farmer that comes along.

This is free coinage. Some people argue that all the farmers in the country are shooting for it.

We should see a good many strange things in this country if the silver people should have their way.

The Washington correspondent of The Commercial Gazette says the President has approved everything that Secretary Gresham did while the former was duck hunting, and as they discussed the international features of the Spanish imbroglio Mr. CLEVELAND was even more aggressive than Secretary Gresham had been, and is determined that the insult offered to the flag by firing upon it should not pass unchallenged.

It is learned that the President is very angry at the attitude of Minister MURUAGA in criticizing Secretary Gresham's dispatch and in saying that it should have been shown to him.

Mr. CLEVELAND has no love for the Spanish Minister, and when Princess EULALIE was to visit Washington he represented MURUAGA's endeavor to have him hasten to the train when she arrived there to meet and embrace her. MURUAGA's insistence that Secretary Gresham should meet the Princess at the wharf when the Spanish man-of-war arrived also rankles in the President's bosom.

Since there is added to this MURUAGA's insolent criticism of the Secretary of State it is evident that the Spanish is not very much of a persona grata. If the Spanish Minister should develop any more eccentricities it need not be surprising if he is given his passports. The President is an aggressive state of mind, not in the humor to be trifled with, and is urged on in his Americanism by anxiety to recoup popularity lost in the Hawaiian and other diplomatic incidents of this Administration.

Spain, it is said, has received no official report of the Spanish cruiser firing on the Alliance. It is understood that the Spanish officials in Havana claim the Alliance was within three miles of shore, and that the cruiser had a right to sink her on her refusal to haul down.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by any known method, but the cure rests in the disease portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an infection, conductive or nervous. The Eustachian Tube, when this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result. Unless the infection is removed out and about, and returned to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the numerous small vessels.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

The number of immigrants arriving in this country during February, 1860, was 9,608, as against 9,602 during February, 1859. For the last eight months the total was 16,129, as against 19,129 during the same period last year. This is one industry whose decline it is pleasant to contemplate.

PUTTING UP A PRESCRIPTION.

An Evening News—
Scene—Drug-store on Second street. Time, about noon. Solitary clerk in attendance. Enters young woman, evidently in haste.

Young Woman—handing doctor's prescription to clerk—Will it take long to put this up?

Drug Clerk (reading prescription)—About fifteen minutes.

Young Woman—Mercy! as long as that?

Drug Clerk—Oh, well, I'll try to do it in ten minutes.

Young Woman—The one you put up yesterday didn't take five.

Drug Clerk—This was only for one article.

Young Woman—Well, I'll wait.

Young Woman (walks away examining articles)—Do you keep stamps?

Drug Clerk (from rear of store)—Yes, ma'am.

Young Woman—All kinds?

Drug Clerk (filling a vial)—Only the smaller denominations.

Young Woman—How funny! (After an interval)

Where's your directory?

Drug Clerk—Right over there (indicating locality).

Young Woman—(to herself)—Well, I do indeed, I've forgotten. Sarah's husband's in the office, well, never mind. (Shuts up book and resumes tour of inspection.) How now is this?

Drug Clerk (coming, as if fatigued from running to examine bottle)—Two dollars and a half, madame.

Young Woman—My, how expensive! (Clerk resumes work.)

Young Woman—Dipping off gins and hair herself to a gum drop—Are these fresh?

Drug Clerk (in a tired voice)—I guess so.

Young Woman—How much are they?

Drug Clerk—Fifteen cents, quarter of a pound.

Young Woman—Isn't that ready yet? I've been here half an hour.

Drug Clerk (looking up surprised)—It will be ready in a moment.

Young Woman—(taking up salsman)—Are these to give away?

Drug Clerk—Yes; help yourself, please.

Young Woman—Noticing clerk writing a label—Never mind the label, I know the directions.

Drug Clerk—But I mean it. It is my duty, and the duty of the law, to insist.

Young Woman—Oh, well, go on; only please hurry. I'm tired waiting so long. (Clerk wraps up vial and hands it to customer.)

Drug Clerk—Eighty cents, please.

Young Woman—My, for that little vial!

Young Woman—One moment, please; you change.

Young Woman—Oh, yes; how stupid of me! (To young woman, leaving clerk in wonderment.)

Don't Stop Tobacco—How to Cure Yourself While Using It.

Young Woman—(to herself)—Are these to give away?

Drug Clerk—Yes; help yourself, please.

Young Woman—Noticing clerk writing a label—Never mind the label, I know the directions.

Drug Clerk—But I mean it. It is my duty, and the duty of the law, to insist.

Young Woman—Oh, well, go on; only please hurry. I'm tired waiting so long. (Clerk wraps up vial and hands it to customer.)

MORE TROUBLE.

England's Drastic Demands on the Nicaraguan Republic

Brings Up the Doctrine Formulated Under President Monroe.

Most is to Warn the British, that We Must the Heard—Old Venezuela Bound by Treaty with England—French and German Interest Involved.

Washington, March 20.—The United States is at the beginning of diplomatic complications with Great Britain besides which the Alliance incident which is now going through the usual channels of correspondence, will sink into oblivion. This situation was discussed at the cabinet meeting yesterday with all the gravity which its seriousness demanded, and the feeling was unanimous that the United States was called upon at this juncture to assert vigorously the American doctrine formulated under President Monroe.

Washington, March 20.—The United States must insist upon full and absolute justice to the American side.

The dust will be shaken off the musty old Monroe doctrine, which it has not been necessary to assert so long for many years, and is to be administered with the earnestness which now seems to characterize it, Great Britain will either withdraw from its buccaneering position or else lay herself open to a passage at arms with the United States.

The question which just at this moment is most acute is that which affects the relations of Great Britain and Nicaragua. England has presented an ultimatum to that feudal republic, demanding that it make a payment in damages sustained by British subjects ex-patriots who had sought refuge in the Mosquito reservation, the provision being inserted that no American citizen shall sit on the commission.

This ultimatum is regarded as grossly unjust and peremptory, and the provision which demands a payment of damages is looked upon as a deliberate conspiracy to prevent the Nicaraguan government from securing the services of the commissioners of the only nation from which they can expect even-handed justice.

Ambassador Bayard has been instructed to lay before the British secretary for foreign affairs a request for an explanation of Great Britain's attitude toward Nicaragua. England has an interest in all disputes between European nations and the American republics, which extends to every interest which it has in the Americas. The British government is to be informed of the terms of the ultimatum.

The British government is delicate enough by itself, but complicated with the Venezuela boundary dispute, in which the United States has also displayed a marked interest, it assumes greater importance.

The ultimatum is taken by the United States with reference to the boundary dispute will undoubtedly have a bearing upon the temper with which Great Britain receives our representations concerning Nicaragua.

A British warship is now steaming toward Bluefields, presumably with instructions to back up the ultimatum in the usual British way, and the British secretary for foreign affairs has been asked to give a guarantee for an ultimatum which he assumes the right of the United States to interfere, and which threatens active interference in case of a failure to moderate the terms of the ultimatum.

TO CALL PAES.

An Electric Button at Each Congress-man's Desk.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Item of legislation quite escaped attention in the closing scenes of Congress.

It is the provision appropriating $1,000 to introduce an electrical call system in the house.

Ever since Congress has been in session the members have called the pages by lightly clapping their hands together.

Members are always calling the pages, and this light clapping of hands goes on, but the language used is speaking louder, but the sound is most in evidence when a member is addressing the house. This will be done away with at the instance of Congress-man Cannon, of Illinois.

With the Fifty-fourth congress every member will find a button on his desk, which will require only a slight pressure to insure the coming of a page.

PLENTY OF IVORY.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—According to a report submitted to the state department by United States Consul Morris at Antwerp, the principal market of ivory in the trade, during seven years amounted to 1,755,073 pounds, and the last year was $83,230 in value.

The report says there is no reason to fear the exhaustion of the ivory supply, the ivory crop of centuries being still in the hands of natives.

There are about eight thousand elephants living.

JUDGE JACKSON MAY RESIGN.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—It is understood that Justice Howell P. Jackson, who is now at his home in Tennessee, will resign from the bench of the supreme court next fall, if his health does not permit him to resume active participation in the work of the court after its summer vacation.

ABRODINED BY THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The president has pardoned Blue Duck, convicted of murder in Arkansas, and W. H. Faust, sentenced to six months' imprisonment in Arkansas for counterfeiting.

RETURN TO HAWAII.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—President Cleveland has demanded the recall of Minister Thurston to Hawaii. It is understood that Justice Howell P. Jackson, who is now at his home in Tennessee, will resign from the bench of the supreme court next fall, if his health does not permit him to resume active participation in the work of the court after its summer vacation.

WILL IT BE "FORT HAYES."

WASHINGTON, March 20.—A lengthy and noisy debate on a resolution, introduced by several members of the last house, has been presented to Secretary Lamont by Gen. Grosvenor, asking that the name of Columbus Barracks be changed from "Columbus" to "Fort Hayes" in honor of the late ex-president of the United States.

NEW INCOME TAX RULE.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The following instructions have been sent to collectors of internal revenue: "Corporations are required to make income tax returns for 1898, and to pay the tax due on the amount of the tax for 1897."

The collector of the district in which their principal office, from which all of their business is directed and where their books and records pertaining to such business are kept, is located. Branch offices are independent, therefore, and required to make returns of the part of the business under their control.

IRON HALL Cases Dismissed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 20.—In the criminal court Tuesday the indictment against James M. and his son, the executors of the estate of the late James M. Hall, which has been standing for three terms of court, was quashed and the bondsmen were released. It is also probable that the indictment returned against ex-Supreme Justice Somerby at the same time will soon be dismissed.

Window-Glass Trunk.

PITTSBURGH, March 20.—The largest meeting ever held by the window glass manufacturers convened in Pittsburgh, Pa., to consider the question of the window-glass tax. The window-glass tax was not represented.

The most harmonious prevailed, and, after some preliminary discussion, the manufacturers formed an association to be known as the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers.

Brother and Sister Arrested for Arson.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., March 20.—Chief Cisco Tuesday arrested Mrs. Matilda Sheppard, a well-known and popular woman of this city, and her brother, George, 21, of Covington, on warrant charging them with arson. The warrant grew out of the white cap notices left with Mrs. Covard lately and the burning of the barn.

Dead Baby in China.

WATKINS, Ind., March 20.—Bluffton is awaiting the arrival of a new infant, dead in the Wesleyan church. While sweeping out, the sexton found the remains in the aisle, and at once reported the case to the authorities. The whole affair is enveloped in mystery.

A Hoosier Gusher.

BLUFFTON, Ind., March 20.—The Studebaker-Bennett Oil Co., operating in the Nottingham fields, south of this city, drilled in the largest well ever started in Indiana territory. Oil is flowing from the pipe at the rate of 70 barrels daily.

Accepted the Cut.

KOKOMO, Ind., March 20.—A 15 per cent reduction in wages was made at the Great Western Lumber works, this city, Monday. The operation accepted the cut. Sanitary ware is made. The plant's capacity is 300 operatives.

PRICE 50 CENTS.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The situation in the labor troubles remains unchanged, but it is not for the fact that the mills are still running, the level there would be no interest taken in the great strike.

The Monk!

By MATTHEW G. LEWIS, (MONK LEWIS).

Mr. Lewis was a member of the British Parliament, and his book became so popular in England a hundred years ago that it gained the title of "Monk Lewis."

It is a fine piece of classic composition, and after being out of print for many years it has been republished from the original text.

It is far superior to "Maria Monk" and books of that character.</p

TO THE BOTTOM.

The Spanish Reina Regente Was Wrecked Off Gibraltar.

The Vessel Found With a Few Inches of Mast Above Water.

Not a Soul Left to Tell of Her Awful Fate—Three or Four Hundred Persons Proverbially Went Down with Her—Grief in Many a Home.

CADIZ, March 29.—The Spanish cruiser Alfonso XII. has returned here after a search for the missing cruiser. The Alfonso was last seen on March 22, and found the latter vessel sunken near Bajío Acetanos, not far from the straits of Gibraltar. Only twenty inches of the Reina Regente's masts were above water.

The Alfonso XII. has returned to the scene of the wreck with a number of divers and diving appliances, in order to recover the bodies of the crew of the sunken warship.

The Reina Regente was reported missing on March 13. She had just convoyed from Cadiz to Tangier the returning Moorish mission to Spain. The cruiser left Tangier on March 10 for Cadiz, and her whereabouts had not been definitely ascertained until yesterday. Fleets of one of her boats and semaphore flags were reported to have been picked up along the shore near Ceuta and Tarifa.

She carried a crew of 420 officers and men, and all hands are believed to have perished.

So soon as the reports of the disaster became current a number of Spanish and British warships put to sea in search of her. A French steamer, the Martínez, was reported missing, and a steamer of the New York assay department, has been in Carson for the past week inspecting the United States mint in this city. Some time over $80,000 has mysteriously disappeared from the mint, and his colleagues tendered their resignations. Senior Sagasta informing the queen regent that he feared insubordination among the officers of the mint would result in a mutiny, the military officers in the mint and the provinces would even endanger the monarchy. The impression produced upon the general public at seeing the government at the mercy of a few score of subalterns is most painful.

CARSON, March 26.—Gen. Martínez, captain general of Madrid, paid another visit to Queen Regent Christina Tuesday afternoon. Later it was stated that Premier Sagasta and his colleagues in the cabinet, who had tendered their resignations, would probably resume their ministerial functions.

NEWFOUNDLAND SCHEME.

Tunnel that Would Reduce Transatlantic Voyage One-Third.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 20.—It is stated that an effort is being made to build a tunnel and tunnel entirely to the demands of the colony when the terms of its admission to the Dominion are considered.

The latest proposition is that Canada should tunnel the straits of Bell to give a direct rail connection with Canada.

This, it is urged, will confer special advantage upon Canada, reducing the sea voyage to England by three, and rendering it possible to convey miners from Montreal to Europe in less time.

MADRID, March 26.—Gen. Martínez, captain general of Madrid, has proposed to build a tunnel the straits are about twelve and one-half miles wide, and the land formation is said to be favorable to the undertaking.

LOBSTERS TOO SHORT.

From Boston Fish Commission Dealer Liable to Be Fined $15,000.

BOSTON, March 20.—Three thousand short lobsters were dumped into Charles river, near the mouth, Tuesday morning, by a dealer from Canada, and were consigned to a local fish commission dealer here, although their ultimate destination was New York. The law under which the dealer was required to sell his lobsters for cash or offer to sell him in his possession, lobsters under the statutory length, shall forfeit a fine of $2 for each lobster offered for sale or found in his possession.

The bad accident was delayed for a minute the state cause flag was given up for lost.

In Cadiz and Cartagena, where most of the 400 officers and men of the lost cruiser were reported, there was great anxiety and excitement from the moment she was reported missing.

The Reina Regente about two years ago came to New York as one of the Spanish squadrons which escaped across the Atlantic to the United States.

The Infanta Isabel, now reported to have sunk an American schooner off the coast of Cuba, and the Nueva Espana, were the other ships of the Spanish squadron.

Portuguese Monarchs on April 21, 1861, the Reina Regente having the caravel Santa Maria in tow; the Pinto was in tow of the Infanta Isabel, and the Nina was towed by the Nueva Espana. All three of these Spanish warships took a conspicuous part in the recent Columbian naval parade in New York harbor on April 7 of the same year.

Killed on Both Sides.

SANTOAGO, Cuba, March 20.—Rumors are in circulation of a prolonged fight near Jiguan last Friday, in which many were killed on both sides. Dark news put an end to the rumors, and it is believed that it is the Cuban government will leave 2,000 of their troops sent from Spain in Porto Rico, and bring soldiers from Porto Rico to Santiago, as they are better acclimated. Many of the wounded Spanish soldiers are in the hospital here.

Reign of Terror in West Virginia.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 20.—The remains of the man found cut to pieces on the railroad have been identified as those of Michael Filialia, a Hungarian, who attempted suicide by hanging in the basement of his home, and has been arrested on complaint of his wife for cruelty.

After his unsuccessful attempt at self-destruction he was taken to the city hospital, from which place he was released Monday.

Despair at Sixties.

CANTON, O., March 20.—Maggie Runcroft, of Steubenville, Pa., evidently attempted suicide here with carbolic acid. Her mouth is horribly burned. She says she took the acid by mistake, but circumstances indicate that she ran away from home to seek her fortune.

Her home has been led astray and is now stranded and disengaged.

Killed His Father.

READING, Pa., March 20.—John Oswald, a farmer, aged forty-five years, of Oley, this county, was killed by his stepson, a boy of 14, who had eight days earlier come into residence and started to abuse his wife, when the son interferred.

The father then turned his attention to the boy. The latter seized a heavy stick and struck his father across the forehead. The father died in ten minutes.

Marked Bill Found on Him.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Walter W. Robinson, a superintendent of leased carriages at Yonkers, has been arrested on the charge of robbing the mails.

He says he was engaged in a robbery of the mail when he met the mailman at the fire on the steamer Alliance at abating. Senor Munaga, according to the Epoch, added that the resentment shown by the American newspapers was shared by President Cleveland.

Noted Georgian Dead.

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 20.—Ephraim Tweedy, one of the most prominent residents of this city, has died. He was born in Ireland 64 years ago, and came to Augusta from Canada in 1831. He entered the war on the side of the confederacy, but after the surrender joined the reconstruction movement, and was speaker of the Georgia legislature during Gov. Bullock's administration.

Want's Without a Regulation.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 20.—John McGowen, alias John Devon, is under arrest and charged with having opened and robbing the safe of Alfred Bullock, a Jackson (Miss.) jeweler on February 28, and taking $4,500 worth of money and jewelry. He is held for requisition, having refused to return to Mississippi without it.

Can't Smoke in the Streets.

BENJAMIN, March 20.—Emperor William has issued a decree that men of the Berlin garrison to smoke on the principal streets of the city because of irregularities in the salute offered to royal personages.

Under Heavy Bonds.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The names of the men who were killed and maimed in the explosion of Alfred Bullock's, a Jackson (Miss.) jeweler on February 28, and taking $4,500 worth of money and jewelry. He is held for requisition, having refused to return to Mississippi without it.

WECHSA, Kas., March 20.—Henry Cherry, his wife and two sons, Raymond, 10, and Henry, 8, were poisoned by drinking water from a well near their home. Cherry and his wife may die; the children will live. Suspicion points to an unnamed Summitt as the guilty party.

He is the extraordinary grand jury.

SCHWEINFURT.

The "Crown" Will Find That Earthly Heaven is Not in the Devil's Kingdom.

CHICAGO, March 20.—George Jacob Schweinfurt, who declares he is Christ, and maintains a "heaven" of angels, as he calls them, at his farm near Rockford, Ill., failed to appear yesterday to judge Dunne's court when the case brought against him by Geo. W. Conley for $50,000 damages was called. The case was continued for two weeks.

Schweinfurt claims his countrymen have no jurisdiction over him, but Judge Dunne declares he will bring the pretender to the bar if he has to go to "heaven" to get him. Mr. Conley says Schweinfurt hypnotized his wife, who has taken all the blame for the "heaven" which alienates him demands satisfaction. He says he has been repeatedly urged to shoot the false prophet.

SHORTAGE.

Eighty Thousand Dollars Worth of Gold and Silver Bullion Disappear From the Crown Mint.

CARSON, Nev., March 20.—Andrew and John Carson, owners of the Carson assay department, has been in Carson for the past week inspecting the United States mint in this city. Some time over $80,000 has mysteriously disappeared from the mint, and his colleagues tendered their resignations.

Henry F. Taylor, aged 59, of Brooklyn, an organ manufacturer, committed suicide by jumping off the roof of a building. He was instantly killed.
